

Karen goes to see Dr. Miller – To the tune of “The Wheels on the Bus.”

The wheels on my car go round and round, round and round, round and round (x2)

All the way to Austin

The doors at the office go open and close, open and close, open and close (x2)

All day long

Doctor Miller comes out to say hello, say hello, say hello (x2)

At my visit

The doctor will show me the kissing machine, kissing machine, kissing machine (x2)

To blow air in my face

Next I will see flashing lights, flashing lights, flashing lights (x2)

Red and green

Now a light will move from my head to my face, head to my face, head to my face (x2)

I'm all done

Now I will say Thank you Dr. Miller, Thank you Dr. Miller, Thank you Dr. Miller (x2)

Time to go home.
