At My Happy Birthday Party there are many things to see. The first one is a big, red balloon!

Wow, now there are 3 red balloons! Let's count them together!

This balloon is in the shape of a heart. It is a big, red, heart balloon.

The next thing at My Happy Birthday Party is a big red present with a bow!

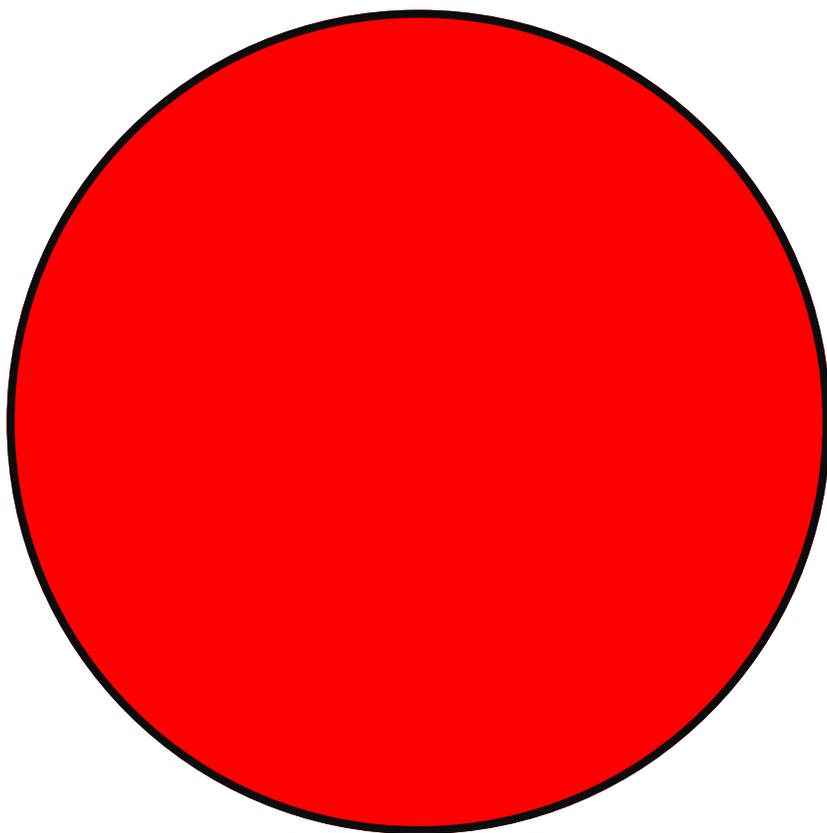

Oh look! Here is another red present and it has a yellow bow.

Another Happy Birthday present! It is a pretty yellow box with a bright, red bow.

Look at my first Happy Birthday present. It is a red ball to play with and roll around!

My next Happy Birthday present is a toy car! It can roll fast on the ground.

My next Happy Birthday present is a red helmet to wear on my head. I wonder why I got a helmet?

WOW! My last Happy Birthday present is a bike! The red helmet will keep me safe when I go for a bike ride!

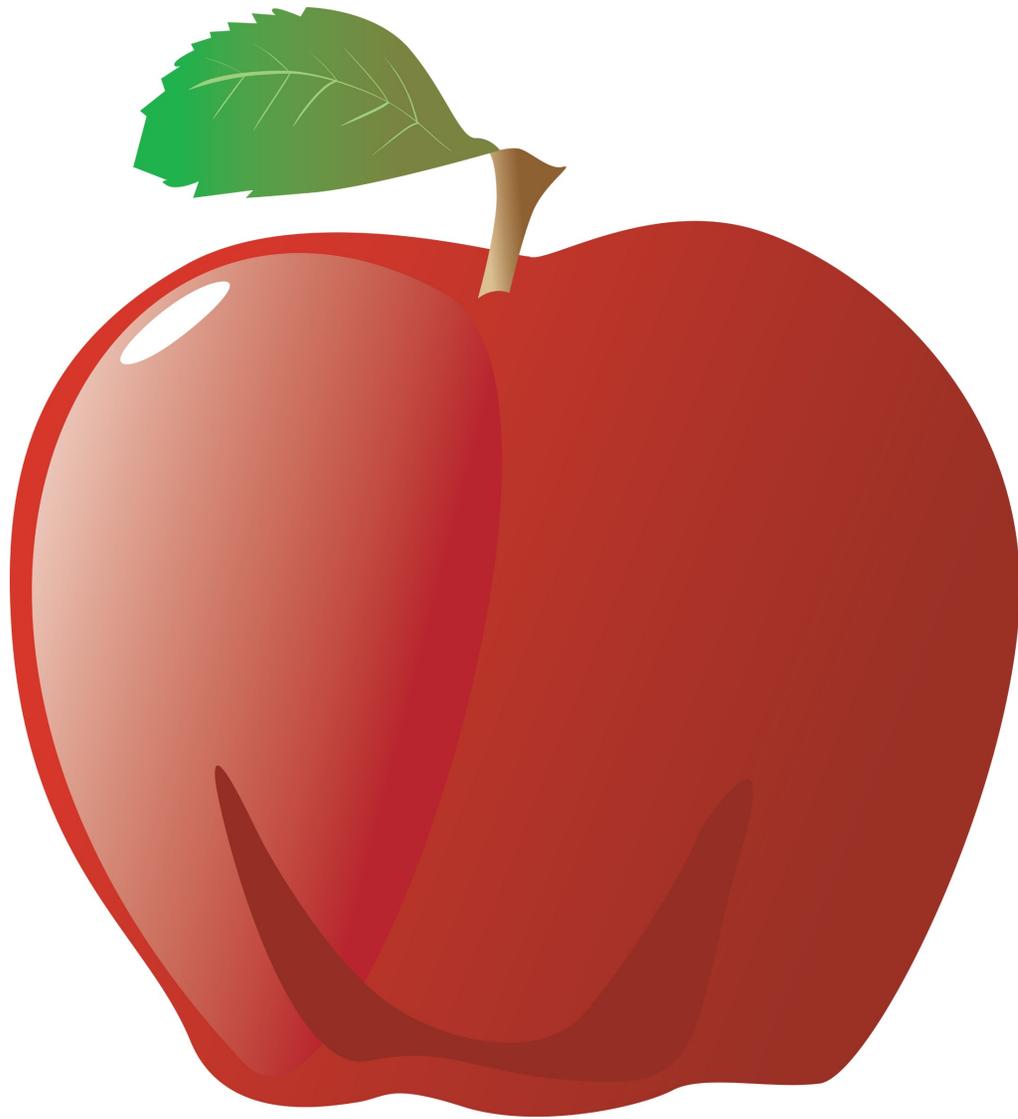

Now I am ready to eat some good food at My Happy Birthday Party. This strawberry looks very red and tasty. We don't eat the green part!

I get to eat the strawberries with whipped cream! YUM!

Here is a big, red apple that looks good to eat!

This red apple has a candy coating. I love to eat candy apples!

My favorite thing to eat at My Happy Birthday Party is the birthday cake! This cake looks yummy!

My Happy Birthday Party was so much fun!
