On the Smith Ranch the ranch hand Butch has someone who checks on the animals every day. That someone, Fred Stone, is always on time. The chicks always run across the grass as Fred walks across for work. The stallion, Chips, runs for the shed that has many bales of hay. Fred feeds Chips then the chicks. Butch's child, named Nathan, likes Fred and helps him sometimes. This ranch is a good place for all people and animals.

After church on Wednesday, Stan and Eddie always go across the street for munchies. They like chocolate shakes above all choices at Chuck's Snack Shack. Which size shake shall they get this week Stan asks Eddie. A medium shake they decide. As they sit, a child stops for a shake. The child sits himself on a stool across from them all alone. He watches the boys. "Sit with us." Eddie says. He smiles and sits with them as they chat about church tonight.
