

A Big Adventure
In Clarence St,
With
Sarah,
Chloe,
Mrs Prior
And Ms G.

On Monday Sarah came to school.

Mrs Prior said, "Let's have an adventure!"

"Yes," said Sarah, "Let's have an adventure."

And they did.

Sarah, Mrs Prior and Ms G left the library.

Guess who they met outside?

They met Chloe!

“Hello my Chloe!” said
Sarah.

“Hold my hand please,
Chloe.”

And Chloe did hold Sarah's hand.

They walked across the playground and out through the big gates.

Sarah and Chloe and Ms G and Mrs Prior walked down the driveway and on to Clarence St.

Sarah and Chloe heard a big dog barking. “Woof, Woof!”

It was Barry the dog, who lives in Kasey’s house on the corner.

“Turn left!” said Sarah.

They went over the bumpy grass.

They had a look at a hedge, it had little green leaves.

The hedge felt soft.

At number 54 Sarah and
Chloe saw a letter box.

The letter box looked like a little house.

Chloe and Sarah saw a very big flower. It is called a Bird of Paradise.

Sarah, Chloe, Mrs Prior and Ms G went over the bumpy grass, and over the smooth driveway.

At number 48 they saw beautiful lavender.
Lavender smells nice!

Number 48 has 2 letter boxes!

Sarah, Chloe, Mrs Prior and Ms G decided to cross the road.

At the edge, they looked right, left and right again.

There were no cars coming, so when it was safe, they crossed the road.

At number 45, Sarah and Chloe felt the fence.

Was it rough, or smooth?

The fence was rough,
And the gate was smooth.

On the foot path they found a paperbark tree.

The tree felt rough, and the paper bark felt like paper.

Sarah and Chloe saw a yard with lots of animal figurines.

There was a duck, an emu, some frogs and a monkey.

Chloe loved the frogs!

At the fence, there were 3
flags on flag poles,
An Aboriginal flag,
An Australian flag
And a Torres Strait Islander flag.

In the next yard, they saw a big pine tree.

The pine tree was very tall.

When Sarah and Chloe pushed the leaves, the tree went wobble, wobble, wobble.

Sarah, Chloe, Mrs Prior and Ms G crossed the road again.

They looked right, left and right again.

When there were no cars they crossed the road.

It was time to go back to class, so they went up the driveway, through the big gate and back to school.

Everyone had a very good time on our big adventure in Clarence St.
