Princess Daisy and Peach were in the race. But they got tired and wanted lunch so they sat down on the side of the road and decided to have a picnic. Little did they know that Bowser was going to spot them. He was driving over a bridge when he saw the two princesses having a picnic.

When they noticed him driving over the bridge toward them, they froze in fear! They saw the tractor and expected Bowser or a farmer to get out of the tractor. They were surprised to see a handsome prince (Bowser had changed his identity).

Peach and Daisy relaxed a bit. "Hi. My name is Prince Larry Web Browser. I've cleaned up the lava in my castle and I want you to come visit my castle."

Daisy was so excited to jump in the tractor, but Peach was worried. "I'm not sure if I want to get into a tractor. Do you have a clown car available?"

"I spilled too much oil on it, so I borrowed the tractor for today," replied Prince Larry Web Browser.

"What will you do for us if we come to your castle?" asked Peach.

"I will fix up your cars so they are functional and fashionable. And I'll play board games with you."

Peach considered carefully. Daisy was already in the tractor. Peach wanted to stay with her friend and she loved board games, so she jumped in, hoping for the best. They started toward the castle when Peach noticed a yellow car with pillars tailing them. Inside was Toad, calling through the pillars encrypted with microphones and amplified by the speaker. Daisy looked on the seat beside her and found a matching pillar that she could use to talk back. She felt safer.

A green spotted egg rolled in front of the tractor. The wheels stopped when they hit the egg. The egg hatched before their eyes. A green dinosaur with little scales on it popped out.

He said, "Hi, I'm Luigi." Daisy and Peach fell for it, but Browser knew better.

"I know it's you, Yoshi, don't lie to these ladies!"

There wasn't room for Yoshi in the tractor, so he jumped into the yellow car with Toad and followed the tractor to Browser's Castle.

Yoshi reminded Toad, "We might need Mario's help--something's up with that Browser guy--I saw his eyes turn slightly red."

They turned off to the side and went to pick up Mario at the Spaghetti factory.

Toad asked, "Where is your brother, Mario?"

Mario answered, "He went to the castle to straighten it up for a party with Daisy and Peach."

Yoshi told Mario all about his morning, and Toad, the driver, got a little distracted. Before he knew it, they were driving up the rainbow road--with no guardrails!

Toad was scared--"I hope we don't fall off, or we'll be in Nothingness--a place I don't want to go. Good thing I'm an excellent driver."

Yoshi reminded him of the speed limit--which is 70 miles per hour.

Back at the castle, Luigi was worried. Where were they? Browser and the ladies were trying to get to the castle, but Browser had a bad daydream that interrupted his driving. Before he knew it, he found himself on the rainbow road. But he wasn't quite as good a driver as Toad, and he drove too fast and fell off the road into Nothingness. They all screamed, and Mario heard them through the nothingness.

"Oh no." Toad said, "There's a problem--we have to help them."

He parked the tractor, and Mario, Yoshi, and Toad made a human chain to rescue the fallen tractor. Browser decided to follow Toad because he was a better driver.

They arrived at the castle and they all entered in their own special way. Browser paid $11.00 at the toll booth and went over the bridge that had a clearance sign that said 100 feet maximum. Toad was so small he took a short cut under the bridge, turning the car into a boat. Yoshi rolled over the bridge bouncing on the trampoline to get over the moat. Mario flew using the propeller suit with a propeller on top of his red hat.

When they arrived in the castle Bill, the Triangle of Destiny was drumming his fingers on the table saying, "I thought you'd never get here."

Luigi, wearing his best green hat, green shirt and green pants, standing beside him, said, "Welcome to my castle."

Browser said, "It's my castle, but you can share it for today."

Luigi had cake and cookies and board games. The Triangle of Destiny was going to entertain with his music, starting with dun da dun da dun. Browser requested "Broken Wings" and they all sang it together.

"Take these broken wings and learn to fly again learn to live so free."

In the middle of the song, they smelled burnt cookies.

Browser said, "Oh no, that lava oven is broken again.!"

Luigi said, "Good thing I have candy and a cake for us and some chocolate milk. "

Browser likes really hot cocoa. Daisy danced with Luigi while Peach ate a bowl full of peaches.

Meanwhile Toad and Browser and Yoshi went to take care of the fire in the kitchen. First they tried the fire extinguisher but it needed new batteries. Then Browser growled and stomped on the fire. Nothing can burn him, so the fire was easily out only destroying the oven.

Browser created a ballroom where they could all dance. They listened to the chicken dance. Browser wanted to dance with Peach but she said 'No' because she wanted to dance with Mario because they were in love. Browser was angry and Toad and Yoshi wanted to save the party. They were worried that he would rage and burn the castle with everyone alive inside the castle. He had used up all his good will for the day by putting out the fire and building the ballroom. Now, Luigi and Mario worked together to put a sleeping pill into his juice so he wouldn't cause trouble for the rest of the party. It wasn't to kill him or hurt him, just to calm him down and let him rest so the others could have a good party. They brought him to his room and left the phone next to his bed on a nightstand. The rest of the characters went to dance. Daisy loved dancing with Luigi to the Chicken dance.

Upstairs in the bedroom, Web Browser was making a sleep call. He called Toad because he was the best driver and he snored a little before he said, "Can you bring me some medicine to help me calm down?"

5/1/18

"I'll be up in the elevator to bring you some medicine. Hang tight."

He took the medicine and he went to the elevator. It was a giant glass elevator. It had no front door and no back door, and it was like a platform with no controls. The triangle of destiny was holding the big remote that controlled the elevator and he pushed the up button. He was distracted by the songs that had bad words and he forgot to push the stop button, so the elevator went all the way up through the top of the tower, first to Ireland, then India, then Australia, then on to explore the solar system with Mars, then Jupiter, then Saturn. It started to come down and the parachute opened to slow it down. It hit the space bridge that took the elevator to Seattle where it landed with a THUD and then triangle of destiny remembered to hit the button to transport back to Vancouver Washington and Browser's castle. Triangle of Destiny greeted him with dadadada daduh, and then Toad and the Triangle went up to the 945th floor by stairway. Triangle of Destiny helped to hold the cup so that Toad didn't spill the medicine. Triangle asked "Are you ready to take this calming medicine so you can enjoy the party, Browser?" Browser replied, "Indeed. I am ready to join the party and I'll try to stay happy."

Yoshi was outside setting up a laser show.

Back at the party, Mario and Peach were dancing to "Broken Wing." Daisy and Toad were having a good dance to the Chicken Dance. Web Browser arrived apologetically and said in a humble voice, "I apologize for causing all the conflict when I wanted to burn everything. I feel hungry now, does anybody have any snacks?"

Yoshi, just coming in from outside, said, "I have brownies. Would you like one?"

Browser said, "Yeah," and Toad corrected him.

Toad said, "Remember to say 'please' and 'thank you.' " Toad brought ice cream and root beer.

He said, "You can have some of this too, if you say, 'please and thank you.'"

Browser answered contritely, "Please, I would like ice cream root beer and a brownie.

Luigi wanted everyone to go outside to see Yoshi's laser show.

He said, "Time to go out for the show," but nobody heard him because the music was too loud. He told Toad to use the secondary microphone that was double loud.

He announced, "Check your text for the grand finale race and laser show information."

He texted Daisy who was powdering her nose in the bathroom and the rest of the group listened while he announced, "Outside we will have a laser show and a race as a grand finale for our party. For more detailed information, please check your text."

Daisy checked her text from the bathroom and ran out because she didn't want to miss the party. She was in such a hurry that she left her makeup undone and barely pulled up her pants in time!

At the race, Mario, Luigi, Daisy, Yoshi and Browser raced, and Mario won and Luigi came in second. Peach was terrified after that tractor ride she had with Browser, so she just waited at the finish line. Before they went home that night, Yoshi had a big laser show. It was spectacular and exquisite.

Toad took the extra pizza home in the yellow car. Peach and Daisy decided to ride with Toad because he was a safer driver. Mario rode with Toad too because they were good friends. Luigi and Browser stayed at the castle and decided to clean up from the party the next morning.
