

Lighthouse Guild Teen Group for Juniors and Seniors

Chat with other teens around the country!

We have a free telephone support group for high school juniors and seniors who are blind and visually impaired from around the country to discuss high school and college life.

You will have the opportunity to talk about common social, emotional, academic, and practical concerns connected with high school and college and having a vision impairment. Some of the subjects we discuss include:

- Driving/mobility
- Traveling at night
- Dating/social life
- Preparing for college
- Career goals
- Assistive technology

Groups are led by Daria Zawadzki, JD, LMSW, a licensed social worker. Groups meet twice a month on the phone (toll-free). The meetings start September, 2019. Groups will be small and everyone will have the opportunity to take part. Guest speakers will also share their knowledge and experiences.
